Bulls & Bears

Double bottom around (10,760) playing its imperative role in the market but broader picture is still pessimistic in medium term as upside is still restricted with a burden of resistances; follow through closing above the level of (11,243) 20EMA will further append the strength in the market but for the next bull run market has to close above the level of 11,450 with hefty volumes; Strategy is to "Buy" considering 11,077 as a trading stop loss with the target of 11,271 and further 11,450; trade in the market with strict stop losses.
